IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT BUREAU COUNTY, PRINCETON, ILLINOIS

the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff s attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/or support deductions received after the entry of this Order.
DEFENDANTI  AND9  EMPLOYER  WAGE DEDUCTION ORDER  THIS CAUSE coming on to be hearing on the return of a Wage Deduction Summons served upon the empl and the answer filed by the employer, a Wage Deduction Notice having been served upon the employee and the Court fadvised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  1. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15' the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. I deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supp a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the emplifiles bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (ot		PLAINTIFF,	j ,
EMPLOYER  WAGE DEDUCTION ORDER  THIS CAUSE coming on to be hearing on the return of a Wage Deduction Summons served upon the empl and the answer filed by the employer, a Wage Deduction Notice having been served upon the employee and the Court of advised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  I. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff s attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. I deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supp a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant cases to be employed by the employer, the emploites bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than		VS.	CHMMONG DETUDN DATE
EMPLOYER  WAGE DEDUCTION ORDER  THIS CAUSE coming on to be hearing on the return of a Wage Deduction Summons served upon the employer advised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  I. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  I. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  2. That significant is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15′ the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. I deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supp a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the employer files bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support)			) SUMMONS RETURN DATE
THIS CAUSE coming on to be hearing on the return of a Wage Deduction Summons served upon the empl and the answer filed by the employer, a Wage Deduction Notice having been served upon the employee and the Court of advised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  1. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for payme to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. I deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff'.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supp a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supp a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $, plus inter		DEFENDANTI
THIS CAUSE coming on to be hearing on the return of a Wage Deduction Summons served upon the empl and the answer filed by the employer, a Wage Deduction Notice having been served upon the employee and the Court of advised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  1. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for payme to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. I deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff'.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supp a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supp a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $, plus inter
THIS CAUSE coming on to be hearing on the return of a Wage Deduction Summons served upon the employer and the answer filed by the employer, a Wage Deduction Notice having been served upon the employee and the Court of advised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  1. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $, are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the employer fieles bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order than the proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.		AND9
THIS CAUSE coming on to be hearing on the return of a Wage Deduction Summons served upon the employer and the answer filed by the employer, a Wage Deduction Notice having been served upon the employee and the Court of advised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  1. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $, are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the employer fieles bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order than the proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.		FMPI OYFR	1 and the answer filed by the employer, a Wage Deduction Notice having been served upon the employee and the Court fadvised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  1. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15' the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the employer files bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.			WAGE DEDUCTION ORDER advised:  IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  1. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supper a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the empl files bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.		THIS CAUSE coming on to be hearing on the re	turn of a Wage Deduction Summons served upon the employe
IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  1. That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  2. That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff s attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supper a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $ plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the emplifies bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.	and the	e answer filed by the employer, a Wage Deduction N	Notice having been served upon the employee and the Court fully
IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:  That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of Wage Deduction Summons of $ which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for paym to date.  That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff s attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the supper a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the emplifies bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.	advised	1:
<ol> <li>That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15° the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.</li> <li>That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.</li> <li>That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.</li> <li>A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.</li> <li>That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the emplifiles bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.</li> <li>That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.</li> </ol>
<ol> <li>That is ordered to deduct 15% of the defendant's non-exempt gross wages after deduction mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15° the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. It deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.</li> <li>That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.</li> <li>That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.</li> <li>A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.</li> <li>That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the emplifiles bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.</li> <li>That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.</li> </ol>	I.	That a lien hereby imposed upon the non-exempt wages of as of the date of the service of the which includes court costs and interest to date and credits for payment.
mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15 the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff s attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. I deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  3. That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum order above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.  4. That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.  5. A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the empl files bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.		to date.
the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. I deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.  That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer	2.	mandatory pension or retirement plans or where the spouse/child support deduction order, if any, leaves funds up to 15% of the non-exempt gross wages, each pay period, to be remitted to Plaintiff's attorney (or Pro Se creditor) at least monthly. No deductions may occur if Defendant's net check is less than 45 times the federal minimum wage.
<ul> <li>That a Wage Deduction judgment is hereby entered against Employer in the periodic sum or above each pay period in favor of Defendant for the use of Plaintiff.</li> <li>That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.</li> <li>A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.</li> <li>That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interest costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the employer shall be held and stacked in the order.</li> <li>That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.</li> </ul>
<ol> <li>That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.</li> <li>A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.</li> <li>That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $</li></ol>	3
<ul> <li>date of this order, pursuant to the calculations set forth herein.</li> <li>A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.</li> <li>That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $</li></ul>
<ul> <li>A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.</li> <li>That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $</li></ul>	4.	That employer turn over to Plaintiff the withheld wages from the date of service of the wage deduction proceedings to the
<ul> <li>and Amended Answer with this Court and send a copy to the attorney for Plaintiff, informing the Court as to spouse/c support deductions received after the entry of this Order.</li> <li>That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the empl files bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.</li> <li>That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.</li> </ul>	5.	A lien obtained hereunder shall have priority over subsequent lien obtained hereunder, except that liens for the support support deductions received after the entry of this Order.  6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interes costs in the amount of $ are paid in full, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the empl files bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.		a spouse or dependent children shall have priority over	all other liens obtained hereunder. Employer is further directed to file
6. That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $		support deductions received after the entry of this Ord	y to the attorney for Flamtin, informing the Court as to spouse/clind ler.
files bankruptcy, or this Court enters an order modifying this Order.  7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.	6.	That this continuing Wage Deduction Order shall remain in effect until the judgment of $, plus interest an
7. That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (other than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order.		costs in the amount of $ are paid in full files bankruptey or this Court enters an order modify	II, the defendant ceases to be employed by the employer, the employed ing this Order received by the employer and take effect only upon the conclusion of this Order.	7.	That any other liens or wage deduction proceedings (ot	ther than spouse/child support) shall be held and stacked in the order
	Q		ved by the employer and take effect only upon the conclusion of this Order. this Court does, and it shall, retain jurisdiction of the parties hereto and subject matter contained hereof to amend this
Order upon any change in circumstance.	0.		i the parties hereto and subject matter contained hereof to amend this
SO ORDERED.		SO ORDERED
Dated: ENTER: JUDGE	Dated:		ENTER:
JUDGE				